ChargeUp Europe welcomes Schneider Electric as its latest member

ChargeUp Europe, the voice of the EV charging infrastructure industry in Europe, is extremely happy to announce Schneider Electric as its 18th member.

Schneider Electric is leader worldwide in the digital transformation of energy management and automation, (with presence in more than 100 countries and with around 130K employees.) Schneider Electric aims at connecting the entire e-mobility ecosystem thanks to digital technologies to provide the most optimized energy management and clean energy strategy for homes, buildings, fleets, and other in transit charging stations.

Since its launch last year, ChargeUp Europe has now grown to 18 full industry members, two knowledge partners, and three ecosystem partners, all working together to accelerate the rollout of EV charging infrastructure and enable seamless charging for drivers across the EU.

Commenting on the announcement, Maria Andreeva, Global eMobility Marketing Strategy Leader at Schneider Electric, stated:

"We are very glad to be a member of ChargeUp Europe, a key actor in the eMobility influential space for EU, aiming to accelerate the deployment of EV charging infrastructure in the continent. Our goal at Schneider is to facilitate the transition to the new electric and more sustainable mobility, partnering with the most important players in the industry to achieve a net-zero future"
